

How does my smart meter work?

Your meter records electricity usage every 30 minutes and automatically sends this data to your electricity distributor.

